DISCOVER FRANKFURT

We encourage all attendees to get out in the evening for strolls to enjoy the warm weather and discover Frankfurt.

This city is home to some of the best restaurants in Germany. Here is a guide that you can use to select a restaurant or pub. There is also a large shopping mall very close to the conference center, which offers a supermarket, pharmacy, an electronics store, various shops, a food court, and a rooftop restaurant.

FRANKFURT – THE FOODIE CITY

After spending time in Frankfurt during last year's conference, we became convinced that the city isn't just about the international airport or the skyscrapers, and definitely not just about the Frankfurter sausages sold around the central station! Backing up our belief, we came across an excerpt about Frankfurt, which we think will appeal to food lovers.

Gisella Williams, who considers herself an urban explorer, writes:

"Many think of Frankfurt as a city of straitlaced bankers and nondescript towers. But over the past few years, Germany's business capital has loosened up. The city's tastemakers are opening hidden spots, many of them in Bahnhofsviertel, the red-light district next to the main train station that is starting to gentrify. There you'll find Club Michel, a supper club on the second floor of an office building, where a rotating roster of chefs includes a soba-noodle-making expert. Elsewhere in the neighborhood, the brothers behind Maxie Eisen, a hybrid of French bistro and New York deli famous for its cocktails and pastrami sandwiches, have opened the sleek Stanley Diamond, which has dishes like beet risotto and almond-nougat crème brûlée. Not far away are two chic places for after-dinner drinks, Kinly Bar and the Parlour."

UEFA EURO 2016

If you enjoy watching soccer matches, you are in the right place at the right time – the Union of European Football Associations (UEFA) Euro 2016 takes place this summer. Soccer fans will be rooting for their favorite teams in the Week 3 matches that coincide with ISC.

If you want to be a part of this “soccer festival,” visit any of these bars to catch the live matches on large screens.
